Attorney General John Ashcroft
950 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, DC 20530

Dear Mr. Ashcroft:

The Microsoft case was ridiculous. In my view, it showed how the U.S. Government can step in and attack a company because it has a huge market share.

The competitors complained and said Microsoft was unethical even though the same attackers' business practices are largely the same.

The settlement on Microsoft's behalf shows how cooperative the company can be in a reluctant situation. It includes compromises that far exceed the original scope of the lawsuit, and gives their competitors several unfair advantages.

Please approve the settlement and let Microsoft put the lawsuit behind them once and for all.

Sincerely,

Jerol Love
